PRIMARY RULES UNDER ARIZONA STATE LAWS

Provision of New Code Made Public With Reference to Procedure at the Arizona Primary Elections.

The primaries will be held on September 8, sixty days prior to the general election of Tuesday, November 3, as required by law. The day for the general election is fixed as the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

The procedure for the primary election as provided in the new code is as follows:

At least sixty days before the primary the secretary of state shall prepare and transmit to the board of supervisors a notice designating the offices for which candidates are to be nominated. This notice shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks.

Candidates shall file nomination petitions from twenty to sixty days before the primary; that is, not later than August 19 and not sooner than July 9. They are to be signed by the candidate, bear his residence and post-office address, the dates of the primary election and the election, and, if he is a non-partisan candidate, it must be so stated.

Petitions for state office are to be filed with the secretary of state; for county offices with the clerk of the board of supervisors, and for the city offices with the recorder.

The candidate may also file a nominating paper signed by qualified electors. In the case of candidates for presidential electors, representatives in congress, United States senator and state offices with the exception of the legislature and superior court judges, it must be at least 1 per cent of the voters of his party distributed over at least three counties; for a county office, member of the legislature of superior court judge, 3 per cent of the party in the county; for county precinct committeemen, 3 per cent of the party vote in the precinct; for justice of the peace and constable, 5 per cent of the party vote in at least a sixth of the election precincts.

The basis of per centage in the vote of the party for governor at the last preceding general election. Any political organization which cast 5 per cent of the total vote for governor shall be entitled to representation. A new party may be represented by a candidate upon petition of electors equal to 2 per cent of the number of votes cast for governor, distributed through at least five counties.

The county supervisors and city recorders must prepare sample ballots twelve days before the primary of 1914 and submit them to chairmen of county and city committees and candidates.

Strict provisions have been enacted regarding election expenditures. Each candidate must file his itemized list of expenditures within ten days after election. It must include all promises to pay money or other things of value as well as all treats, presents or favors which cost money or other things of value either present or future which are intended to contribute to their success.

The candidate must file expenses of his authorized agents and of those who made expenditures in his behalf even though not authorized. If he does not file these statements he is not to receive his certificate of nomination, supposing him to have been successful. Successful or unsuccessful, he is liable to a fine of from $25 to $500 upon conviction of the misdemeanor.

Vacancies occurring after the primary shall be filled by the party committee. Campaign committees must file reports of their expenditures.

The maximum prices which may be legally paid by means of campaign expenditures for the various offices are: United States senator, $1,500; state officer, $1,000; supreme judge, $750; congressman, $1,000; Superior judge, $200; state senator $200; state representative, $200; office of a district or subdivision of a county, $50; mayor of a city of 5,000 population or over, $200; other city offices, $150; mayor of a city of less than 5,000 population, $100; other city officers, $50.

If a candidate exceed these expenditures, he shall be liable to a fine of from $100 to $2,000 and not get certified in the jail of the county in which he shall have been convicted, from six months to two years.

What Does Pay Day Mean to You?

Does money burn in your pocket on pay day? Do you spend carelessly thinking only of the next pay check.

A Bank Account will stop the leaks. It makes one mindful of the small expenditures and more careful of the large ones.

With money in the Bank on "PAY DAY" the desire to see it grow larger urges you to add to it systematically.

FOUR PERCENT INTEREST paid on SAVINGS and TIME DEPOSITS are strong inducements for you to make PAY DAY a DEPOSIT DAY with us twice a month.
